Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

*Praise, my soul, the King of heaven, to His feet thy tribute bring,
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, evermore His praises sing
Alleluia, alleluia,*

Praise the everlasting King

*Praise Him for His grace and favour to our fathers in distress,
Praise Him still the same forever, slow to chide and swift to bless,
Alleluia, alleluia,
Glorious in His faithfulness*

*Fatherlike, He tends and spares us, well, our feeble frame He knows,
In His Hands, He gently bears us, rescues us from all our foes,
Alleluia, alleluia,
Widely as His mercy flows.*

*Frail as summer's flower we flourish, blows the wind and it is gone,
But, while mortals rise and perish, God endures unchanging on
Alleluia, alleluia,
Praise the high eternal One*

*Angels, help us to adore Him; ye behold Him face to face,
Sun and moon bow down before Him, dwellers all in time and space.
Alleluia, alleluia,
Praise with us the God of grace.*

Come, Thou Almighty King

*Come, thou Almighty King, help us thy name to sing,
Help us to praise: Father! All glorious,
O'er all victorious, come, and reign over us,
Ancient of Days.*

*Come, thou Incarnate Word, gird on thy mighty sword
Our prayer attend! Come, and thy people bless,
And give thy word success: Spirit of holiness,
On us descend.*

*Come, Holy Comforter, Thy sacred witness bear
In this glad hour! Thou, who almighty art,
Now rule in ev'ry heart and ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of pow'r.*

*To thee, great One in Three, the highest praises be,
Hence evermore; Thy sov'reign majesty
May we in glory see, and to eternity
Love and adore.*

Lead On, O King Eternal

*Lead on, O King Eternal, the day of march has come,
Henceforth in fields of conquest Thy tents shall be our home
Thro' days of preparation Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal, we lift our battle song*

*Lead on, O King Eternal, till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And holiness shall whisper the sweet amen of peace;
For not with swords' loud clashing, nor roll of stirring drums,
With deeds of love and mercy the heav'nly Kingdom comes.*

*Lead on, O King Eternal, we follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning where'er Thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us; we journey in its light
The crown awaits the conquest; Lead on, O God of might*

Reception to follow.

*Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven, public domain,
Come, Thou Almighty King, public domain,
Lead On, O King Eternal, public domain*

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI 2005

Tyndale University College

Jack E. Phillips, BTh, 1953

Jack grew up as a Christian. After attending Business College, he enrolled at Toronto Bible College in 1950. In 1953, he graduated and with his new wife, Dorothy, he attended teachers' college. In October 1954, armed with their teaching credentials, the couple worked in West Africa with the Sudan Interior Mission (SIM). This was the beginning of 20 fulfilling years of ministry in Nigeria. Jack's passion for seeing others come to know the Lord coupled with his passion for education led him to a teaching position at the Minna School for Missionary Children. Jack would later become principal of Kent Academy, where he served until his family returned to Canada in 1975. Coming full circle, Jack assumed the position of Assistant to the Acting Director at SIM, before being promoted to Canadian Director where he served until retirement. Jack's heart for missions is obvious to all who meet him. In his retirement, he remains active as a mentor to missionaries.

Tyndale Seminary

Michael B. Sandström, MDiv, 1998

Prior to enrolling at the Seminary in 1995, Michael spent several years as an investment banker in his native country, Sweden. But Michael, not satisfied with the fast paced, competitive world of banking, emigrated to Hong Kong where he started his own business. Hong Kong brought many new and wonderful prospects into Michael's life. He met his wife, Man, and together they met many local and overseas missionaries who shared the love of Christ with the couple. Michael and Man were challenged by the gospel and sought to serve the Lord more wholly with their time and gifts. The couple was led to Toronto where Michael began his practical ministry training. Michael's graduation was seven short years ago but in that time, his ministry with the Northern Canada Evangelical Mission (NCEM) has changed many lives. Michael lives with his wife and two children in Fort Vermilion, where the family serves as missionaries to native people in northern Alberta. Michael is involved in many ministries including leading short-term missions teams in summer and radio ministry.

HONOURARY DOCTORATE 2005

Preston Manning

Preston Manning is best known as Leader of the Opposition in Ottawa where he served from 1997 to 2000. However his interests go beyond politics to include the relationship faith has with science, business, politics and conflict resolution.

He founded two political parties – the Reform Party of Canada and the Canadian Reform Conservative Alliance. Since retirement from public life in 2001, Mr. Manning has been Senior Fellow of two Canadian research bodies: the Fraser Institute and the Canada West Foundation. Currently, he is developing a Canadian centre for building democracy.

Mr. Manning is also a Distinguished Visitor and Lecturer at the University of Toronto. In 2002, he authored a book entitled Think Big, which provides details on his use of the tools and institutions of democracy to change Canada's national agenda. He continues to write, speak, and teach on such subjects as the revitalization of democracy in the Western world, strengthening relations between the scientific and political communities, the revitalization of Canadian federalism, and interface faith and politics.

Mr. Manning and his wife Sandra have five children.

HISTORY OF TYNDALE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE & SEMINARY

Tyndale is the result of two schools joining in 1968: Toronto Bible College (TBC) and London College of Bible and Missions (LCBM). The Toronto school was founded in 1894, and is the third oldest school (after Moody Bible Institute and Nyack College) of its kind in North America. Known first as Toronto Bible Training School and then as Toronto Bible College, the school was located near the University of Toronto. Its founding President was Rev. Elmore Harris, Minister of the historic Walmer Road Baptist Church and a member of the Massey-Ferguson family.

London College of Bible and Missions was founded in 1935 as London Bible Institute by Dr. J. Wilmot Mahood. In 1968 LCBM and TBC merged, and became Ontario Bible College. In 1976, the College moved to its present location in North York.

The development of the graduate school, Ontario Theological Seminary, evolved naturally out of a demand by church, missions and students for a graduate level studies.

The name Tyndale was adopted in 1998 as part of a renewed vision to build a great centre of Christian higher education. Its namesake, William Tyndale, an early Protestant reformer and the first person to translate the Holy Scriptures from the original languages into English, serves as a model for scholarship, Christian faith and vision.

On June 26, 2003 the Ontario Legislative Assembly passed Bill Pr21, which granted permission to change the name to Tyndale University College & Seminary and for the University College to offer Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Arts (Honours) degrees in the humanities, social sciences and business.

Tyndale is an evangelical, transdenominational school with over 1,200 students and more than 9,000 alumni.

THE CREST OF TYNDALE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE & SEMINARY

- The name is taken from the father of the English Bible, William Tyndale (1494-1536).
- Founded in 1894, Tyndale was first known as Toronto Bible Training School.
- In 1968 London College of Bible and Missions and Toronto Bible College merged.
- The lantern is a symbol taken from Psalm 119:105, "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path."
- The Greek term douloi Cristou best describes Tyndale's vision, which is to be servants of Christ.

Our mission: To educate and equip Christians to serve the world with passion for Jesus Christ.
